
All fitting, calibration, and threshold selection precede the October-December evaluation window.